

Introduction

Netcare recognises that it has a crucial role to play in contributing to the sustainable growth and development of the countries in which it operates. Healthcare is a basic need in every society and puts Netcare at the heart of socio-economic development. Netcare's contribution extends beyond ensuring that more people are able to access high quality healthcare, to the multi-faceted commitment that defines our role as a leading corporate citizen.

Netcare relaunched its values across the organisation

- truth
- care
- dignity
- participation
- passion

